

FourSight for Optimizing Innovation & Creativity

Building General Workplace Skills

This powerful workshop allows your participants to focus on the "what" and "how" of innovation. The half- or full-day workshop incorporates our innovation toolkit with the FourSight Assessment tool. Your team members will identify their role in creating and innovating new approaches and ideas at work. Thousands of corporate, educational and nonprofit clients use FourSight to examine where they excel and where they don't, and to understand the four phases of the breakthrough-thinking process.

Workshop Key Learnings and Outcomes:

- Participants will receive a workbook and materials.
- Participants will understand their preferred role in the innovation cycle; clarifier, ideator, developer, or implementer.
- Participants will action plan to develop the best alignment their group or team can achieve.
