

The Five Dysfunctions of a Team Workshop

This is a great workshop for teams struggling with feeling “stuck” or unproductive.

- Choose a half day, one or two-day training format to assure the results you want in the timeline you have available.
- Choose our location or the location of your choice. We bring portable activities to locations worldwide to build collaboration, interaction and hands-on learning.

About the Workshop

The Five Dysfunctions of a Team Workshop is based on the New York Times best-seller, The Five Dysfunctions of a Team, by Patrick Lencioni. This learning experience will help any team take its first steps towards greater cohesiveness and productivity. Using powerful exercises, teams will make significant progress in each of the five fundamentals: trust, conflict, commitment, accountability, and results. The workshop can be held in half day, one or two day session, as well as in multiple modules.

The Workshop Includes:

- A pre-session review of needs and the launch the Five Dysfunctions Assessment
- Classroom and collaborative learning breakout sessions
- Workbook and program materials
- Add on materials that emphasize skills or key learnings that you need
- Available in full day or two day sessions

Tackle your team’s dysfunctions and develop their performance in the following key areas:

- ✓ Dysfunction #1: Absence of Trust
- ✓ Dysfunction #2: Fear of Conflict
- ✓ Dysfunction #3: Lack of Commitment
- ✓ Dysfunction #4: Avoidance of Accountability
- ✓ Dysfunction #5: Inattention to Results
